

1895-062 Chancery Causes: J. C. Pauley vs M. E. Pauley
Lee Co.

Cas. n

Ch-Divorce
T-Vices

1 To the honorable H. S. K. Morrison Judge
2 of the Circuit Court for Lee County Virginia:

3 Humbly complaining, your orator
4 J. C. Pauley would respectfully repre-
5 sent and show unto your honor, that 6 on the 5th day of April 1885, he was 7 married to M. E. Gavin who is his 8 present wife, that he lived with his
9 said wife until the month of June
10 1889, that at said time he was apprised
11 of the fact that his said ^{wife} was unfaithful
12 to him and had been guilty at that 13 time of adultery; that he thereupon
14 separated from his said wife and 15 has not cohabited with her since his 16 knowledge of the fact of her said
17 adultery; and that his said wife's acts
18 of adultery were not committed by 19 his procurement or connivance.

20 Your orator will further shew
21 unto your honor that he and 22 his said wife are residents and have 23 been for more than a year, of said
24 County of Lee and State of Virginia;
25 and that he and his said wife have 26 ~~two~~ children viz H. L. Pauley and W. R.
27 Pauley.

28 The object of this bill, therefore,
29 is to obtain a divorce from the bonds
30 of matrimony existing between your 31 orator and his said wife.

32 To this end therefore, your Orator

1 prays that the said M.E. Pauley may 2 be made a defendant to this bill and 3 required to answer the same under 4 oath; that your orator may be entirely
5 divorced from her, and the marriage
6 dissolved, and for all further and general
7 relief. May process issue directed etc.
8 And your Orator will ever pray etc.
